Sample Letter to Employer

(Send letters to school board members' employers to acknowledge board members' service to the community and emphasize school-business ties. To be mailed by the superintendent or Chamber of Commerce.)

Dear _____:

Thank you for your support of _____, a member of the _____ School Board.

As a member of the board, _____ helps make decisions that have a tremendous impact on our children's future and the quality of life in our community. Your recognition of the importance of this civic duty and support for _____ is a testament to the commitment you and your company have for our community.

School board membership is one of the most personally demanding forms of public service. _____ and the other members of the school board spend countless hours preparing for and participating in their monthly meetings. They also devote a great deal of time to studying education issues and laws, as well as listening to the concerns of parents and teachers. In reality, they never are completely "off the job" as board members.

Wisconsin School Board Week is being celebrated Oct. 6-12 throughout Wisconsin. Please thank _____ for their service and dedication, and I want to thank you for the important role you play in helping our school board take care of our community's children.

Sincerely,

Celebrate Your School Board's Success!

The (school district name) will join school districts throughout the state in saluting their local education leaders during Wisconsin School Board Week, which runs from Oct. 6-12.

The commemorative week is designed to recognize the contributions made by Wisconsin's school board members, including those on the (district name) School Board, who are charged with governing public education under state law.

Wisconsin school board members are chosen by their communities to manage local schools. They oversee multi-million-dollar budgets that fund education programs for more than 867,000 students in more than 420 public school districts. Their personnel decisions affect thousands of teachers, administrators and support workers.

These volunteer leaders are responsible for formulating school district policy, approving curricula, maintaining school facilities, and adhering to state and federal education law. Legal concerns and the complexities of school finance, including budgeting and taxation, require them to spend many hours in board training programs and personal study to enhance their understanding of these issues.

Our deepest appreciation is extended to the dedicated men and women who make it possible for local citizens to participate in education in our community. We salute the public servants of the (district name) School Board, whose commitment and civic responsibility make local control of public schools in our community possible. We extend our gratitude to (insert names of local board members).

Please join us by saying thanks to our school board members during Wisconsin School Board Week.

Wisconsin School Board Week Set for Oct. 6-12

The Wisconsin Association of School Boards has designated Oct. 6-12 as Wisconsin School Board Week – a time to raise awareness and understanding of the vital function an elected board of education plays in our communities. (Your school district name) is joining all public school districts across the state in celebrating Wisconsin School Board Week and honoring local board members for their commitment to (community's name) and its children.

“It takes strong schools to build a strong community, and these men and women devote countless hours to making sure our schools are helping every child learn at a higher level,” (superintendent's full name) said. “They make the tough decisions every month and spend many hours studying education issues and regulations in order to provide the kind of accountability our citizens expect.”

(Superintendent's last name) said the key work of school boards is to raise student achievement by:

- Creating a vision for what the community wants the school district to be, and making student achievement the top priority.
- Establishing standards for what students are expected to learn and do.
- Ensuring progress is measured to ensure the district's goals are achieved and students are learning at expected levels.
- Being accountable for their decisions and actions by continually tracking and reporting results.
- Creating a safe, orderly climate where students can learn and teachers can teach.
- Forming partnerships with others in the community to solve common problems.
- Focusing attention on the need for continuous improvement by questioning, refining and revising issues related to student achievement.

“School board members give the (community's name) citizens a voice in education decision-making. Even though we make a special effort to show our appreciation in October, their contribution is a year-round commitment.”

The members serving our district and their years of service are as follows: (list board members here) (Conclude with the ways the district will recognize your school board members during the week.)
